2 John's Online Safety Parent Presentation

I am pleased to say that we have the 2 John's visiting us next Wednesday to give a hugely important talk on how to keep our children safe online. There will be a presentation to parents in the morning followed by sessions for the children and staff during the day.

The parental session will happen in the south hall at 9.15. Please feel free to head straight to the hall after dropping your children off. Teas and coffees will be available.

I know that many of you attended their online session last year and found it incredibly useful; however, I would still urge you to attend this session. This is an area that changes so quickly and there are always new developments and dangers online. The 2 Johns are very engaging and having them here in person will make it easier for you to ask any questions you may have.

I cannot stress enough the importance of this session. Our children are growing up in a very different world to the one in which we grew up. It is very easy to feel powerless and overwhelmed when trying to keep your children safe online. This session is a fantastic way of addressing those concerns; it will help to put you in a position of authority when making decisions about what to allow your children to access online.

So that we can get an idea of numbers, please can you indicate your attendance by clicking on the link below.

We look forward to seeing you next Wednesday.

Kind regards,

Mr M Aggus
